Gospel Meeting Kickoff Breakfast

March 9

Next Saturday morning, March 9, we will be kicking off preparations for our Gospel Meeting this year. Our meeting is scheduled for May 1-5 and we have an outstanding speaker scheduled--Brad Harrub, co-founder of Focus Press. Brad will be joining us this Saturday morning by video-conference during our kick-off meeting. We are super excited about our speaker this year! You DO NOT want to miss this!!!

Great Gospel Meetings require diligent preparation. It won't happen by accident. It takes all of us working together for weeks before the actual meeting begins.

YOU can be involved! There are things YOU can do to help! The elders would like to encourage YOU to attend the kick-off meeting and sign up to help with the meeting preparation. Let's try to have a packed house for the March 9th kick-off meeting and make this our best Gospel Meeting ever! (Breakfast is served at 8:00.)

Hello and welcome to worship!

The old mountaineer had lived a full but not exactly saintly life and now was on his deathbed. He summoned his weeping wife. "Sara," he said, "go to the fireplace and take out the third stone from the top." She did as instructed. "Reach in there," said her husband, "and bring out what you find." Her fingers touched a large Mason jar, and with some effort, she pulled it up. The jar was full of cash. "Sara," said the old man, "when I go, I'm going to take all that money with me. I want you to put that jar up in the attic by the window. I'll get it as I go by on my way to heaven." His wife followed his instructions. That night the old mountaineer died. After the funeral his wife remembered the Mason jar and went to the attic. There was the jar still full of money and by the window. "Oh," the widow sighed. "I knew I should have put it in the basement." Source unknown

Which way are you going? Some people think that there is no way of knowing. We get to choose which way we go. Up or down, the Lord has told us we may know. If you choose north, you have chosen the best place to go forth. If you choose down, it will be eternity with a frown. North leads to the Lord, a place you will never be bored. South leads to Satan, who you will soon be hating. Up is the only wise choice. You will be given a heavenly voice. The atmosphere of these two places is nothing of the same. In heaven one will feel as one of fame. To those will be given a crown. The prettiest ever found. In hell there will be no thoughts of fame. Only that of shame. There will be no pretty things. That is, unless you like fiery rings. No more in this poem, will I speak of hell. That place of jail. I want to conclude, with something that will put you in a good mood. May your heart be turned to the Trinity. Who loves you to infinity. You and God, God and you. Dream of being, one of the fine few. May your eyes arise, to a view through the skies. Think of walking through the pearly gates, with your heavenly mates. Make the choice to meet the Lord. To walk with Him in one accord.

Erick
