Be Knit Together With Love as Spring Approaches

A grove of trees is much stronger than a single tree because the roots are intertwined with neighboring trees. This strength doesn't depend on the size or stature of the trees because the strength is in the roots.

Christians are stronger when they have roots of love that are knit together with brothers and sisters. Like a grove of trees, strength doesn't depend on a single person because there is strength in roots of love.

...that their hearts may be encouraged, being knit together in love, to reach all the riches of full assurance of understanding and the knowledge of God's mystery, which is Christ, (Col. 2:2)

Spring is an extremely busy season, and it is easy to become distracted and disconnected from the Body of Christ. When one becomes disconnected from the Body, it is very easy to become weak spiritually.

We encourage you this spring to make every effort to worship and fellowship regularly with your brothers and sisters at Highland. We are Stronger and Better Together!

Hello and welcome to worship!

We lost a great man of the faith last week by the name of Jack Hickman. Jack impressed me in a whole lot of ways, but maybe more than any other was his example of a husband.

This guy was the model husband. The Holy Spirit says we ought to love our wives as Christ loved the church, and this is what I saw Jack do for Wilma. Christ put us before himself and that is what Jack did for Wilma.

This love was amazing to watch for a husband like me that hadn't been married near as long as him. I took some good pointers from him. As Wilma said, he spoiled her rotten. The love that Wilma had for Him was just as fun to watch as well. What love this couple displayed for the world to see? He was a great husband but he was more than that. I believe Col. 3:12 fit Jack well, "Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience."

March 17, 2019

We were all excited last Sunday to see Parker Davis and Natalie Smith put their faith and trust in Christ by being immersed in Him. Parker and Natalie are now saved ones in the church. It has been fun watching these two grow up, but it will be even more fun, watching them grow up in the Lord. Their future is so bright they're going to have to wear shades. Parker and Natalie, you are now our brother and sister in Christ. We want to be there for you in whatever way you need. Don't be afraid to ask for help from us. May we be great examples for the both of you and let us help you along the way.

Erick
