Tecumseh, OK

Hello and welcome to worship!

Someone asked an elderly Christian lady, "Does the devil ever trouble you about your past sins?" She answered, "Yes." When the inquirer asked what she did then, she replied, "Oh, I just tell him to go east." "What do you do if he comes back?" "I tell him to go west." "And when he comes back from the west, what do you do then?" She said, "I just keep him going from the east to the west." "As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us." Psalm 103:12 Source: Our Daily Bread

The more I think about what God has done with those wrongs I have committed against Him, the more joy it brings me. The more I look at what God has done with my sins, the more I think about how forgiving I ought to be of others who wrong me. David says of God in Psalm 86:5 "For you, O Lord, are good and forgiving," Can the same be said about you? Can everyone say that you are forgiving? Jesus is our greatest role model ever. We are supposed to be growing closer to looking like Him each and every day. He was great at forgiving. We ought to be great at forgiving as well. We, at one time, were enemies and hostile toward God, but He forgave us and because of that we have been reconciled to Him. This means that we have been reunited with God. God took His hostile enemy and made us His sons and daughters. Maybe you have an enemy that has been hostile toward you. Maybe you have been the one who has been hostile and the enemy in the relationship. God wants you to be reunited with this person. He has shown us the way. I have seen great forgiveness from some of you in my stay here at Highland. I have seen the freedom it has brought you. I have seen the joy it has brought you as well. I have seen the forgiveness you have shown me. Think back to all the wrongs you have done to God in your lifetime. Think how you used to be His enemy. Then think about His amazing forgiveness He has placed upon you. Go out and do the same for others. Galatians 5:1 "For freedom Christ set us free;"

Erick

Elders' Corner

Elementary Bible Teachers

Teaching children the Gospel is primarily the function of parents, but we recognize that the teachers of our elementary-aged Bible classes work right alongside our parents to reinforce and teach our children about God.

We know that you spend considerable time preparing and planning Bible lessons for teaching Bible truths to our children. You are teaching our children to know God, Jesus and the Holy Spirit. You are instilling a love for the Bible in our children's hearts. You're teaching them to respect God's Word. You are teaching our children how to love one another, how to love God and how to love the church of Christ. You're teaching them that we must obey God and follow His teachings.

You are extremely gifted in the way you teach Bible truths on a level appropriate for the ages of our children.

The elders are thankful to God for the work you do, and we are thankful to you for your time and efforts in the classroom. We know that sometimes the work you do may get overshadowed by other things, but we want you to know we recognize the importance of the role you fill in teaching our children.

The work you are doing has eternal significance!

p.s. If you're interested in becoming an elementary Bible class teacher, see Jeremy Pearman!
