

Elders' Corner

Dad, is God first in your life? Do you strive every day to do His will and not yours.

Today is Father's Day and I hope all dads are sharing the word of God with their wives, children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren.

We want to thank you dads if you are the leader and head of your family putting God first. There has never been a more important time in our history that we have to stand up for God and do what is right.

Psalms 1:1-6

"Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers; but his delight is in the law of the LORD, and on God's law he meditates day and night. He is like a tree planted by streams of water that yields its fruit in its season, and its leaf does not wither. In all that he does, he prospers. The wicked are not so, but are like chaff that the wind drives away. Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous; for the LORD knows the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish."

If your father is still alive be sure to honor him this Sunday. I miss my father and I wish I could tell him "thank you for your leadership, example, and love when I was growing up."

God Bless you, dads.

Pat, Michael, & Eddy

Hello and welcome to worship! Happy Father's Day! I hope all you fathers out there are just like me and have this father thing down to perfection. It seems like I have always had all the right answers and I have always done the correct thing whether in correcting or giving the right advice. It seems as though I have always been able to look back and say, wow I am the best dad ever. I hope you know I am being facetious. I have not always made the correct choices in this dad thing and have not always been able to look back and say that I did the right thing as a dad. But it sure is nice when I have seen my children make the correct choices because of something that I taught them from the Lord.

I have always enjoyed baseball and I like this story of a dad and his son that I used to watch on TV. "Professional baseball has been played in America since 1875, but on September 14, 1990, something happened that has never happened before or since. Late in his career, Ken Griffey, Sr., who had been a key member of the World Series champion Cincinnati Reds years before, was signed by the Seattle Mariners. His son Ken Griffey, Jr. was just starting his major league career. In the first inning of a game against the Angels, Griffey, Sr. hit a home run to left center field. His son followed him to the plate and hit another home run to almost exactly the same spot. It was the only time a father and son had hit back-to-back home runs in baseball history. Ken Griffey, Jr. said later that his father greeted him at the plate by saying, "That's how you do it, son!" Source: Once Upon a Game, Alan Schwarz

We, as fathers, find so much joy when our children succeed. We find satisfaction in seeing them do well in whatever it may be. I hope we find the most joy though when we see our children do the right thing. I hope we find the most joy when our children obey the Lord. It brings me great satisfaction to see them gain a victory over a temptation. As a dad, it thrills me to see my children obey the Lord from things that I had taught them from the Lord. Prov. 23:15-16 "My son, if your heart is wise, my heart too will be glad. My innermost being will exult when your lips speak what is right."
